

University of Kentucky Department of Landscape Architecture

Complementary Minors & Certificates

The following list of undergraduate minors and certificates are meant as a starting point for more individualized academic experiences for students majoring in Landscape Architecture. We encourage our students to research the curricular possibilities offered by the University of Kentucky, which includes a far more extensive range of minors and certificates.

*Course substitutions may be allowed by other departments when LA studio course scheduling conflicts with their offerings. Talk to your advisor.

Minors

Business
Community and Leadership Development
Digital Media and Design
Mapping and GIS
Plant and Soil Science

Certificates

Appalachian Studies
Global Studies
Historic Preservation
Universal Design
Urban & Community Forestry

For more options, visit the University of Kentucky Registrar's full catalogue of undergraduate minors.